

Conclusions for numeracy performance

Trend performance in year six

The distribution of the year six students who performed at or above the expected proficiency level has increased over the cycles of PILNA since 2015. The increase is also evident in the mean scores over the PILNA cycles since 2015.