

2021 Papua New Guinea Report / Get to know / Schools & their leaders / Are there any barriers to quality teaching?

Are there any barriers to quality teaching?

PILNA 2021 collected information about barriers to good quality teaching in three areas. These were resourcing, consisting of infrastructure, teaching materials, and teachers; external factors that hinder instruction, such as pandemics, epidemics and natural disasters; and school closures and the initiatives used to address these.