

2021 Regional Report / Get to know / Students / Self-reflections

Student self-reflections

Students were asked to reflect on their attitudes to schooling, the well-being problems they may have experienced at school, and other challenges they experienced on a day-to-day basis.

The answers to the questions help us to understand how students feel about school and their learning, and what challenges they feel they are most affected by.

- Student attitudes
- Student well-being
- Student difficulties