

2021 Solomon Islands Report / Get to know / Teachers / Self-reflection

Self-reflection

Good teachers deliver high quality learning to students but they need to be supported and confident in their roles to do so. Teachers from PILNA 2021 were asked a series of questions about themselves, their confidence in teaching, their well-being, and their work satisfaction.

This section presents the findings from these teacher self-reflections in Solomon Islands.